MESSAGE FROM RABBI SOKOLOFF

Welcome to this year's Annual Journal Dinner, at which time we pause to reflect upon the centrality of the Shul in our lives.

Indeed, this year's Journal Dinner carries with it the distinction of being our first in-person dinner since the onset of Covid. In addition, and perhaps more importantly, this is the first dinner that we are celebrating since the merger took place just a few months ago.

Whereas, this endeavor has presented its own set of challenges in an effort to create a cohesive and unified body, one cannot lose sight of the larger picture and the enormous opportunity that stands before us. One must recognize and be moved by the newly found force of energy and life that has descended upon our Shul. Attendance on Shabbos at the Tefilos and Shiurim has increased many fold. The physical improvements that have been made in the sanctuary have significantly enhanced the Kavod to our Beis Haknesses.

There is so much reason for optimism as we move forward and I pray to Hashem that He will continue to shine His presence upon us and guide us through this very exciting time.

With this in mind, I look forward to greeting you all at this year's dinner.

Rabbi Aryeh Sokoloff

MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

How wonderful it is when we are given occasion to pause and reflect on gifts we've been given!

For 26 years our Kehila has been nurtured by a Rav and Rebbetzin who devoted themselves בלב ונפש to this shul and this community. For 26 years we've witnessed their dedication, their selflessness, their warmth and their humility. For 26 years Rabbi Sokoloff has taught Torah, Paskened שאלות, visited the sick, comforted the bereft, joined in the happiness and lifted the spirits of all of us, while the Rebbetzin supported him in all these efforts, and more.

The gemara in Sotah depicts the highest ideals that Chazal envision for human perfection, as follows:

"You shall walk after Hashem your G-d." (Devarim 13) But could one possibly walk behind the Shechina, which is a consuming fire? Rather, the verse teaches us to walk in His ways. Just as He clothes the needy, just as He visits the sick, just as He comforts the bereaved, so shall you...

And the gemara in Pesachim describes the respect we owe Talmidei Chachamim as follows:

Shimon HaAmsoni expounded on every את in the Torah, until he reached את ה' אלוהינו. He was convinced that nothing could be categorized together with יראת שמים. But then Rabbi Akiva came and said, את לרבנות תלמידי חכמים.

We honor our Talmidei Chachamim because we see in them a reflection of G-d Himself.

For 26 years we've witnessed, up close, the embodiment of Chazal's vision. For 26 years we saw in our Rav what Rabbi Akiva saw in the archetypal Rav.

It is our תפילה that Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sokoloff draw strength and נחת from the success and accomplishments of our Kehilla as we move forward, their example a lodestar for us all.

Rabbi Ephraim Tanenbaum

MESSAGE FROM THE CO-PRESIDENT

Dear friends and distinguished guests,

As Co-President of Kew Gardens Synagogue, it is my utmost pleasure to extend a warm welcome to each and every one of you, gathered here tonight to celebrate our 84th Annual Journal Dinner. This year's dinner holds special significance as we take this golden opportunity to express our profound Hakoras Hatov to Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sokoloff, who have dedicated an incredible 26 years to our beloved Shul and community.

Rabbi Sokoloff embarked on his rabbinical career in 1979, serving the Rochester community with unwavering commitment and fostering a strong Yiddishkeit presence. Since 1997, he has graced Kew Gardens with his wisdom and leadership as our revered Rov, and his impact has extended far beyond our local boundaries. His Ahavas Yisroel, love for his fellow Jews, is exemplary, resonating not only within our Queens community but also throughout various communities in the greater New York area and beyond. Many families have been uplifted by his visits, as he tirelessly traveled to different states and even to Israel, providing Chizuk and encouragement in times of need.

In Rabbi Sokoloff's tenure as Rov, it is a rarity for him to head straight home after davening on Friday night, Shabbos, or Yom Tov. Instead, he selflessly devotes his time to visiting the sick, offering guidance to families, irrespective of their affiliation with our Shul. Additionally, Rabbi Sokoloff's role as a teacher at Shevach High School has left an indelible mark on countless young women. It comes as no surprise that he has earned the love and admiration of numerous Talmidos and individuals. May Hashem bestow upon him and his entire family an abundance of Mazal, Brocho, and Hatzlocha.

We are immensely grateful that Leo Bikk has returned to his regular routine in Shul, fully recovered. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Ladies Auxiliary for their support and dedicated efforts. A special thank you is extended to Rachel Janashvili, whose commitment and dedication have been exemplary, not only for this dinner but throughout the entire year.

This year, our Shul underwent a significant change through the merger with Congregation Nachlas Shmuel and the inclusion of our own Nusach Sefard minyan. We wholeheartedly welcome Rabbi Ephraim Tanenbaum as our new Rov and eagerly anticipate many years of growth and unity. We must emphasize that this growth and revitalization were made possible by the tireless efforts of Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sokoloff. For this reason, they stand as our esteemed honorees tonight.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the Dinner Committee, consisting of Shiu Reichman, Gidon Levy, Malka Schonbrun, Shuly and Shavi Plawes, Rachel Janashvili, and, most especially, my wife, Dora for her unwavering support and active involvement in every aspect of the Shul has been invaluable, and I am deeply grateful for her commitment.

With great anticipation, we look forward to our Shul's continued growth and development. May we all be blessed with Mazal U'vrocho!

MESSAGE FROM THE CO-PRESIDENT

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the Officers of the Kew Gardens Synagogue, I welcome you to our 84th Annual Journal Dinner, held in special tribute to Rabbi and Rebbetzin Aryeh Sokoloff.

The dinner offers us an opportunity to express our great Hakaros Hatov to the Rabbi and the Rebbetzin for their leadership and service to the kehillah and to the community at large. For more than a quarter century, we have all benefited from the Rabbi's wisdom and learning; from the Sokoloffs' extraordinary acts of kindness and Ahavas Yisroel to all who come their way; and from their willingness to give of themselves for countless worthy causes and projects. As is shown every Friday night by the receiving line to wish the Rav good Shabbos, Rabbi Sokoloff is a beacon of warmth and chizuk. The Rabbi and Rebbetzin are irreplaceable models for all of us.

Thanks are due to the Dinner Committee for their extensive work to organize this event: Shiu Reichman, Dora Binkiewicz, Gidon Levy, Shuly and Shavi Plawes, and Malka Schonbrun. The dinner would not have happened without Rachel Janashvili's dedication and efforts, which she applies to everything that concerns KGS.

On a personal note, as this is my first dinner as Co-President, I wish to offer my own appreciation to the many people who have welcomed me and made the merger of our congregations such a success. While I cannot thank them all individually, I do wish to acknowledge Rabbi and Rebbetzin Ephraim Tanenbaum, our extraordinary Mara D'Asra; Dr. Elliot Bondi, for his wise counsel; my co-President Gedalya Binkiewicz, who does everything with a smile; Meir Deutsch, who constantly gives without fanfare; all the officers and board members; the many members who keep the lights on and the minyanim full; and my wife Rifka, who always gives the best advice. I am excited about the future of the KGS and honored by the trust you have placed in me.

“The World exists on three things: Torah, Avodah, and Gemilus Chasadim.” (Avos I:2)

Rabbi Sokoloff

You are the personification of all these Pillars of Judaism:

TORAH

As a genuine Talmid Chacham, you expanded our knowledge and appreciation of Torah through your plethora of Divrei Torah and Shiurim during the week, on Shabbos, and via Zoom.

AVODAH

As a Shliach Tzibur, your words and mellifluous Nigunim entered our hearts and souls, especially on the Yomim Noraim.

GEMILUS CHASADIM

No one will ever forget your incomparable caring and kindness towards members of your Kehillah and beyond: visiting Cholim in hospitals at all hours of the day and night, checking in with those under the weather on Shabbos before heading home for Kiddush, and giving much appreciated advice to those seeking guidance.

For all this, you will forever be embedded in our hearts and memories. May Hashem bless you and your extended families with good health, Arichas Yomim, and the Koach to continue inspiring people with your superb Middos.

Whether it's sharing in our Simchos or giving Nechama in difficult times, whether it's making house calls to give Chizuk to students or being מבקר חולה on Shabbos, we always felt the Rav was there for us with an overflowing feeling of care.

Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sokoloff, you will be sorely missed. You have raised the bar of Chesed for all of us. We are certain that the beautiful קידוש ה' that personifies you will be a continued source of inspiration to us all.

Congratulations to

Rabbi & Rebbetzin Sokoloff

on this well-deserved honor.

I cannot think of another couple who is more deserving of this recognition. Rabbi Sokoloff's exceptional devotion to his fellow human beings is unmatched.

Who else would come to your house on a Friday night to ensure the well-being of you and your family during times of turmoil? Who else would visit you in the hospital immediately after an operation, sometimes even before your own spouse? Who else would return a check for officiating at a funeral because he believes you need the money more?

And which other Rabbi would readily agree to study a Mesechta or a Seder in Halachos with you every day?

I am certain that these examples merely scratch the surface of their acts of kindness because their way of life is dedicated to humble service.

Our heartfelt hope and prayer are that Rabbi and Rebbetzin Sokoloff remain a part of our lives, as the invaluable life lessons we can learn from them cannot be acquired elsewhere.

The chesed and kindness that they bestow on our community is amazing. As a grocery we see what the Rabbi does behind the scenes. Countless of families have benefited from his generosity, without even knowing that he worries and cares for their welfare.

Their Bikur Cholim is a model for all to learn from, especially the compassion and warmth that they show. On a personal note, he gave our family tremendous Chizuk and comfort during our difficult period with Alexander Zisha O"H.

Kew Gardens will not be the same without their steady presence.

This special couple are always there for everyone in the Kehilla and in the community.

Rabbi Sokoloff's love for learning and teaching shines through his Shiurim and leaves a lasting impression. Together with his Rebbetzin they enhanced every aspect of the Shul.

We feel privileged to have lived in the same neighborhood as a regal couple and role models to all who know them.

Their understated and refined dignity has inspired us.

Their genuine goodness and concern for every Jew, wherever and whoever they may be, is worthy of emulation.

As a teacher and guide, be it at the Kew Gardens Synagogue Adath Yeshurun or at Shevach High School, Rabbi Sokoloff, with his passion for Avodas Hashem, Ahavas Yisroel and Ehrlichkeit, has shone brilliantly.

May the Rov, the Rebbetzin and their family only know of Brocha, Nachas and Hatzlacha.

In Appreciation of

Rabbi & Rebbetzin Sokoloff

The rabbi and I attended YU long after my grandfather, Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein, OBM (the subject of the book I wrote, The Maverick Rabbi) ended his career as professor of homiletics at YU (among many other titles), but Rabbi Sokoloff's performance as a Rabbi would surely justify a retroactive A+.

I also appreciate his strength of character in sometimes not going along with my occasional maverick ideas, and recognize he was invariably correct.

Dear Rabbi & Rebbetzin Sokoloff,

הלל אומר הוי מתלמידיו של אהרן אוהב שלום ורודף שלום אוהב את הבריות ומקרבן לתורה.
Hillel used to say: be of the disciples of Aaron, loving peace and pursuing peace, loving mankind and drawing them close to the Torah. You truly exemplify these ideals. The pasuk in ויצא פרשת ויצא says: וילך יעקב מבאר שבע וילך והנה. The pasuk in ויצא could have just told us that Yaakov was going to Charan. However, it tells us Yaakov left באר שבע to let us know how deeply his absence was felt there. This is how we feel – Kew Gardens now has a gaping hole. We wish you all the Brachos in the Torah.

May you continue to enrich and enhance all the lives of the people in your orbit and way beyond.
